

WALRUS SOCIAL /// HOUSE

An icon can't be manufactured, it can't be copied. It exists based on an evolutionary belief in itself. Communities and culture support it because they too share this same belief. Such is the icon that is Surfers Paradise. Built by legends that are fast becoming folklore, this eclectic beach town owes its international reputation to those who flew in the face of those who said, "it can't be done".

Enter... the Walrus...

Alcohol wasn't easy to come by in these parts back in the mid 1800s, so a bold yet enterprising 'Bosun', James Stewart, went about setting this straight. As they say, out of adversity comes triumph. Through genius ingenuity and iron will, he hand built a floating rum distillery aboard an old paddle wheeler steamship he lovingly named, SS Walrus. James and his Walrus sailed the Nerang River distilling local folks' sugar cane into prized Walrus Rum for three years keeping spirits high onshore while giving customs officers a rum-for-their-money trying to account for all the gallons produced!

His equation was simple.

Sugar cane + molasses + caramel + 3 years = fiery brown Walrus spirit x 18,621 gallons / 84,725 litres!

From the golden fields of cane, a legend was born. The Walrus Social House is a tribute to James and his trusty SS Walrus. This is why you are now sitting in a heritage inspired establishment built on traditional sugar cane earth that bore the fruits of the Walrus stills – the very steamship moored in the Nerang River on our back doorstep. This is why we are bringing back the social decency of sharing good drinks and fare with good people. Being community. Being entertained. Breathing in life. Breathing out worries. Living in the moment. As James would want us to.

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

SS WALRUS

18

A legend of its time in both spirit and in spirits. The foolhardy vessel that navigated the Nerang River distilling Walrus Rum out of locals' sugar cane, by its brilliant 'Bosun' James Stewart.

Make a toast with our Signature Cocktail to the evolution of social high jinx in town that salutes the high life. Based on rum with an emphasis on pioneering fun.

Bacardi Oakheart mixed with our own 5 spice molasses and topped with our house-made ginger syrup.

BARNEY BOLTON

18

Legendary boat builder, hirer and ferry man Barney Boulton called the GC home in the late 1880s after emigrating from England. Famous with locals and Brisbanites, the jovial skipper ferried beachgoers across the Broadwater from Southport to Main Beach. So lovable, when he'd head north to Brisbane and walk the city barefoot, people would call out, "how they biting Barney?!"

A cocktail with a sweet yet salty bite.

Bacardi white rum shaken with Liqueur De Pomme Verte, butterscotch schnapps and apple juice.

STAFFORD'S PUNCH

17

In our beautiful sunburnt country, where would Australian women of today be without the bikini?

Enter Paula Stafford, the dazzling Gold Coast beauty and fashion designer credited with introducing the bikini to Australian shores in her own backyard of Surfers Paradise. Against conservative criticism she persisted with punch to make this swimwear the preferred beach fashion statement during the 40s and 50s – the rest is now history. A taste with vision, this one's for Paula.

Stolen white rum mixed with Crème de Pomme Verte, ruby red grapefruit juice and apple juice.

WHITE SHOE SHUFFLE

17

A flash in the distance gleaming from the equinox of a summer sun. From a hundred yards away they pace with duck-like determination. Men who built a city by the sea instantly recognisable for doing so by their shared love of donning arctic white leather shoes. A symbol of status. A statement that I mean business, White Shoe Brigade style. This one's smooth and silky like a Surfers property salesman of the 70s.

Vanilla infused Bacardi Gold rum shaken with white choc liqueur and Crème de Cacao.

WANDA 74

17

She came. She saw. She devastated. Cyclone Wanda pounded the Gold Coast in the summer of '74 and saw buildings and pools slip into a relentlessly pounding ocean, forever changing our beachfront landscape. She's a strong girl that's sure to make an unstoppable impact on your taste buds.

Bacardi Gold and Bacardi 8 mixed with Malibu, pineapple juice and passionfruit, garnished with cinnamon

KING OF KIRRA

17

Dedicated to surfing legend Michael Petersen (MP) - iconic Gold Coast pro surfer from the 70s and 80s and the best ever that God put into the majestic barrels of Kirra. They say time stands still in the green room and if rightly so then MP lived in a perpetual time machine. A smooth dive into the Pacific to cleanse and soothe your soul.

Bacardi 8 shaken with pineapple juice, Liqueur d'Abricot and a touch of lime juice.

BLACK SCHNAUZER

19

Keith Williams. An icon in himself building the Gold Coast from Sea World to super yachts. A true pioneer who made things happen flying against the hot air of those who said "it can't be done".

Forever devoted to his furry four-legged Schnauzers, the Black Schnauzer will lift your spirits and drive you to believe anything's possible.

Bounty spiced rum shaken with Crème de Cassis, lime juice, fresh mint and our own blackberry marmalade.

BIRD WATCHER

18

Bird watching. The pastime of many men, enamoured by the graceful beauty and form, a fine bird eludes as it glides past one's gaze. Just add stubbies, thongs, singlet, moustache and a high-pitched whistle and you've got the quintessential species made famous at the iconic Surfers Paradise Birdwatchers Bar. This cheeky number is sweet as the sun goes down, with a second bringing out your full plumage.

Bacardi 8 Rum and Crème de Gingembre shaken with fresh strawberries, lime juice and sugar syrup.

LA WOMAN

21

Los Angeles, Gold Coast. That's right. We had it. Now known as Mermaid Beach, this stretch was originally coined LA by the many US Marines who came here for some R&R after World War II.

The scenic palm-lined boulevard took them home to a place they knew and loved. Take a sip and be transported to a life-stirring sister beach in time.

Cruzan single barrel rum combined with our own 5 spice molasses and a hint of dark chocolate.

KITTY'S FIZZ

17

An early forerunner of massage parlours and escort services in Surfers Paradise, Kitty's sprung to life in the late 1800s proving popular with many men of the day.

Cash wasn't needed. Instead a bottle of rum was Kitty's currency at the front door that was a prized possession in the day to trade in place of hard-earned pounds. Trust us. This purely plutonic partner ain't no fizzer.

Bounty Rum shaken with fresh lemon juice, topped with Champagne and our house-made coconut foam.

BOMBAY ROCK

21

Live Aussie music was never at its strongest than in the 80s, and there was no stronger support of it than the legendary Bombay Rock. Located on the darker outskirts of Surfers, all the big home-grown bands were proud to grace its well-worn stage. INXS, The Choirboys, Mental As Anything, Mondo Rock, The Divinyls, The Radiators and Cold Chisel all played sets to a paradise induced partying crowd. This one's dialled up to 11 and will definitely leave you wanting an encore.

Vanilla infused Bacardi Gold mixed with Licor 43, orange juice, Grand Marnier, Hennessy VS, house-made caramel syrup and Crème de Cacao.

SPRAY TAN MAN

18

For three decades this technician of the tan sprayed hundreds of thousands of sun worshippers with oil, baking them to a perfectly sun-kissed golden glow. An astute admirer of the female form with a cheeky wit, Al is one local icon that deserves his aptly coloured bronze statue on the Surfers Paradise foreshore. Texture like sun, savour this one as the sun goes down.

Almond infused Bacardi Gold shaken with fresh mint, Grand Marnier and lime juice.
