SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

---

BARNEY BOLTON

18

Bacardi white rum shaken with Liqueur De Pomme Verte, butterscotch schnapps and apple juice.

Legendary boat builder, hirer and ferry man Barney Boulton called the GC home in the late 1880s after emigrating from England. Famous with locals and Brisbanites, the jovial skipper ferried beachgoers across the Broadwater from Southport to Main Beach.

So lovable, when he'd head north to Brisbane and walk the city barefoot, people would call out, "how they biting Barney?!" A cocktail with a sweet yet salty bite.

STAFFORD'S PUNCH

17

Stolen white rum mixed with Crème de Pomme Verte, ruby red grapefruit juice and apple juice.

In our beautiful sunburnt country, where would Australian women of today be without the bikini? Enter Paula Stafford, the dazzling Gold Coast beauty and fashion designer credited with introducing the bikini to Australian shores in her own backyard of Surfers Paradise. Against conservative criticism she persisted with punch to make this swimwear the preferred beach fashion statement during the 40s and 50s - the rest is now history. A taste with vision, this one's for Paula.

---

WHITE SHOE SHUFFLE

17

Vanilla infused Bacardi Gold rum shaken with white choc liqueur and Crème de Cacao.

A flash in the distance gleaming from the equinox of a summer sun. From a hundred yards away they pace with duck-like determination. Men who built a city by the sea instantly recognisable for doing so by their shared love of donning arctic white leather shoes. A symbol of status. A statement that I mean business, White Shoe Brigade style. This one's smooth and silky like a Surfers property salesman of the 70s.

---

WANDA 74

17

Bacardi gold and Bacardi 8 mixed with Malibu, pineapple juice and passionfruit, garnished with cinnamon.

She came. She saw. She devastated. Cyclone Wanda pounded the Gold Coast in the summer of '74 and saw buildings and pools slip into a relentlessly pounding ocean, forever changing our beachfront landscape. She's a strong girl that's sure to make an unstoppable impact on your taste buds.

BLACK SCHNAUZER

19

Bounty spiced rum shaken with Crème de Cassis, lime juice, fresh mint and our own blackberry marmalade.

Keith Williams. An icon in himself building the Gold Coast from Sea World to super yachts. A true pioneer who made things happen flying against the hot air of those who said "it can't be done". Forever devoted to his furry four-legged Schnauzers, the Black Schnauzer will lift your spirits and drive you to believe anything's possible.

---

BIRD WATCHER

18

Bacardi 8 Rum and Creme De Gingembre shaken with fresh strawberries, lime juice and sugar syrup.

Bird watching. The pastime of many men, enamoured by the graceful beauty and form, a fine bird eludes as it glides past one's gaze. Just add stubbies, thongs, singlet, moustache and a high-pitched whistle and you've got the quintessential species made famous at the iconic Surfers Paradise Birdwatchers Bar. This cheeky number is sweet as the sun goes down, with a second bringing out your full plume.

LA WOMAN 21

Cruzan single barrel rum combined with our own 5 spice molasses and a hint of dark chocolate.

Los Angeles, Gold Coast. That's right. We had it. Now known as Mermaid Beach, this stretch was originally coined LA by the many US Marines who came here for some R&R after World War II. The scenic palm-lined boulevard took them home to a place they knew and loved. Take a sip and be transported to a life-stirring sister beach in time.

BOMBAY ROCK 21

Vanilla infused Bacardi Gold mixed with Licor 43, orange juice, Grand Marnier, Hennessy VS, house-made caramel syrup and Crème de Cacao.

Live Aussie music was never at its strongest than in the 80s, and there was no stronger support of it than the legendary Bombay Rock. Located on the darker outskirts of Surfers, all the big home-grown bands were proud to grace its well-worn stage. INXS, The Choirboys, Mental As Anything, Mondo Rock, The Divinyls, The Radiators and Cold Chisel all played sets to a paradise induced partying crowd. This one's dialled up to 11 and will definitely leave you wanting an encore.

SAKE ME 18

This will blow your mind. Japanese sake shaken with fresh lychees, lemongrass, kaffir lime leaves and a touch of Midori.
